You can save them with your gift today.

Animals like Sissy need your help desperately.

So many animals like Sissy are suffering alone this season. Many shelters, like Cascades Humane Society, are filled to capacity as newborn puppies and kittens are surrendered at an overwhelming rate. Our staff and resources are stretched to the limit.

Your support is urgently needed to provide lifesaving care to every animal who comes to us during this busy season.

With your gift today of $<LG>, $<UG1>, or even $<UG2> to Cascades Humane Society, you can save dogs like Sissy.

More animal rescues are possible with your help. Whether it's a mother cat and her litter struggling to survive on their own ... or an older dog desperate for a second chance ... they all deserve care and love.

The trouble is, we don't receive as many donations in the summer months. And the cost of caring for pets is at a record high because of inflation. Cats and dogs like Sissy need people who care to help them escape their loneliness and pain.

(over, please)

That's why your gift is urgently needed to make sure abandoned and neglected animals get the care they deserve.

A gift from you today will provide homeless animals with lifesaving care and shelter. Your generosity will set them on their way to the happy, healthy lives all animals deserve.

Together, we can save more animals this summer. I've enclosed reply slips and envelopes for June and July — the time of year when the need is greatest. Please send your June gift today, then put the July slip with your bills to send another gift for the animals when your checkbook is handy.

I've also enclosed a notepad as a token of heartfelt gratitude for your support. I hope you'll think of the animals you've helped each time you use it.

Hurting animals are counting on your compassionate support now more than any other time of year. Please give them a second chance at a happy life with your gift today.

With gratitude,

Heather Leszczynski
Executive Director

P.S. Please send your lifesaving gift today! Jackson's abandoned and neglected animals need your help during our busiest season. You also can give online at www.chspets.org.
